

Mr. Simarpreet Singh
Director
Strategy Hartek Group

He is a young dynamic entrepreneur on a mission to create a better and a sustainable world for our future generations. He is the founder of 2 companies in a short span of just 7 years

Hartek Solar which sets up solar panels on roof tops across the country with a focus to convert every roof to a solar roof generating power through a sustainable source the company is among India's top 10 solar installers in the country. The other venture Hartek India manufactures smart electrical switchboard panels used in the power system infrastructure. The company has products across the country. He recently became the youngest chairman of PHD chambers regional committee of power and renewable energy committee.